Independent Auditor's Report

To the shareholders of Youth and Philanthropy Initiative Canada

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Youth and Philanthropy Initiative Canada, which comprise the balance sheet as at June 30, 2021, and the statements of changes in net assets, income, and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Youth and Philanthropy Initiative Canada as at June 30, 2021, and its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of Youth and Philanthropy Initiative Canada in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing Youth and Philanthropy Initiative Canada's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Youth and Philanthropy Initiative Canada or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing Youth and Philanthropy Initiative Canada's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Youth and Philanthropy Initiative Canada's internal control.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on Youth and Philanthropy Initiative Canada's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause Youth and Philanthropy Initiative Canada to cease to continue as a going concern.
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosure, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

1. Significant accounting policies

Basis of presentation

These financial statements have been prepared using the Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash and highly liquid short-term investments with maturities of three months or less.

Fund accounting

These financial statements are prepared on a restricted fund basis as follows:

General fund

The general fund accounts for the organization's programming and administrative activities.

Internally restricted funds

Operating reserve

The organization has determined that an operation reserve fund to cover six months of the salaries and administrative expenses included in the organization's for the following fiscal year should be established as an operation reserve fund. A transfer is made to or from this fund annually to reflect the amount required in the fund.

Program reserve

The organization has determined that a program reserve fund be established to meet strategic and programming needs. A transfer is made to and from this fund annually to reflect the amount required in the fund.

Capital assets

Capital assets are recorded at cost. Amortization is provided on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Computer hardware	3 years

When a capital asset no longer contributes to the organization's ability to provide services, it is written down to its residual value.

1. Significant accounting policies (continued)

Intangible assets

Intangible assets with limited useful lives are recorded at cost. Amortization is provided on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the assets as follows:

Website

3 years

When an intangible asset no longer contributes to the organization's ability to provide services, it is written down to the residual value.

Revenue recognition

The organization follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions. Restricted contributions are recognized as revenue in the year in which related expenses are incurred. Unrestricted contributions, including donations and sponsorships, are included in revenue in the year which they are received or receivable. Amounts received that relate to future fiscal periods are recorded as deferred revenue.

Interest and government assistance is recognized as revenue when received or when collection of the amount is reasonably assured.

Measurement of financial instruments

The organization initially measures its financial assets and liabilities at fair value. The organization subsequently measures all its financial assets and financial liabilities at amortized cost. Financial assets measured at amortized cost include cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, HST rebate receivable and government assistance receivable. Financial liabilities measured at amortized cost include accounts payable and accrued liabilities. The organization has not designated any financial asset or financial liability to be measured at fair value.

Financial assets measured at cost or amortized costs are assessed for impairment on an annual basis at the end of the fiscal year if there are indicators of impairment. If there is an indication of impairment the organization determines if there is a significant adverse change in the expected amount or timing of future cash flows from the financial asset, and recognizes an impairment loss if the carrying value of the asset is greater than the higher of present value of the expected future cash flows, the amount that can be realized by selling the asset or the amount the organization expects to realize by exercising its right to any collateral.

If events and circumstances reverse in a future period, an impairment loss will be reversed to the extent of the improvement not exceeding the initial carrying value.

Contributed services

Volunteers contribute a substantial amount of time to assist the organization with its activities. Due to the difficulty in determining its fair value, volunteer services are not recognized in the financial statements.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amount of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from management's best estimates as additional information becomes available in the future.

4. Transfer between funds

Subsequent to the year and the directors approved, a retroactive transfer, effective June 30, 2021 of $133,637 (2020 - $50,000) from the unrestricted fund to the internally restricted fund cover the increased needs of this fund and $71,454 (2020 - $62,000) from the unrestricted fund to the operating reserve for future strategic and operating needs.

5. Commitment

The organization is committed under a lease for office premises, which expired June 30, 2021. A new lease was signed on June 4, 2021, commencing July 1, 2021 for a 3 year period with an annual rent of $27,000.

6. Financial risks

The significant risk to which the organization exposed is liquidity risk. Liquidity risk is the risk the organization may encounter difficulties in meeting obligations with financial liabilities and commitments. The organization's ability to meet obligations depends on the receipt of funds from its donors. The organization manages its liquidity risk by monitoring its operating requirements and prepares operating and cash flow budgets to ensure it has sufficient funds to fulfill its obligations.

It is management's opinion that the organization is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks.

7. COVID-19

The organization continued to respond to the challenges of the pandemic by adapting its school-based program in order to be suitable for in-person, online, and/or blended learning environments in consultation with teachers across the country. Although we worked with fewer schools in 2020/21 than we had targeted which was due to the significant and ongoing impact of COVID-19, we continued to deliver on our commitment to youth, schools, charities, and communities during this extraordinary time, with the support of our funders.

On April 11, 2020, the Canadian Federal government passed legislation for the Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy - "CEWS", a wage subsidy program for eligible Canadian employers whose business has been affected by COVID-19. As at the date of the audit report the organization received total funding of $82,958.

YPI Canada works with funding partners to award YPI Grants to charities that have been researched and pitched by local secondary school students through our award-winning participatory grant-making program. Usually, these grants are $5,000 for one charity, per school. Due to the COVID-19 school closures and subsequent adaptations, in fiscal years 2020 and 2021 schools were given flexibility to split their $5,000 grant evenly among their finalist students' research projects. Each school had $5,000 in total to award to charities through this adapted process, and the grants awarded to charities ranged between $500-$5,000 per recipient. YPI Canada also made small donations ($75-$200) to charities that participated in focus groups and other specialized projects.
